

Resignation of RST Member (Regional Service Team Member)

Communications (RCST)
Finance (RFST)
Formation (R4ST)
Leadership (RLST)
Regional Reps (RR)

Step 1 - RST Member Resigns

If a RCST, RFST, R4ST, RLST, or RR member is resigning, she notifies her RST, her Ministry Chair, and CST Liaison via email of the resignation.

Step 2 – Pray for Candidates

Remaining RST members meet, pray, and discern 1-3 final candidate choices.

Candidates must be eligible, according to the Magnificat Handbook, for service in Magnificat. (G:12-13)

Step 3 – Submit final Candidate

Designated RST member* submits the Candidate(s) to CST for approval.

*Designated RST member – would be the RR unless it is the RR who is resigning. Then the remaining RST members would select the designee who serves as the facilitator of the process.

Step 4 – Meet with Candidate

CST will approve a candidate and inform the designated RST member to set up a meeting with Ministry Chair & Candidate.

Designated RST member will advise CST and the Ministry Chair of the meeting date and time.

The purpose of the meeting shall be....

- To advise Candidate she is being considered for a position on RST.

- To share information regarding the position.

- To allow the Candidate to ask questions about the position.

- To share sections in the Appendix to the Handbook with the Candidate. (see next slide).

Step 5 - Candidate Reviews Handbook Sections
