SPRING EDITION

NEWSLETTER VOLUME 3 ISSUE 24

Greetings!

The United State Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) reminds us that "Lent is a 40 day season of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving that begins on Ash Wednesday and ends at sundown on Holy Thursday. ... It's a period of preparation to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection at Easter. We are called not only to abstain from luxuries during Lent, but to a true inner conversion of heart as we seek to follow Christ's will more faithfully. ... The baptized are called to renew their baptismal commitment as others prepare to be baptized through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, a period of learning and discernment for individuals who have declared their desire to become Catholics." Each year on Holy Saturday during the Easter vigil, thousands are baptized into the Catholic Church. It is always such a beautiful and moving liturgy! We are so grateful that the Lord is using Magnificat powerfully to touch lives and help to bring people into full communion with Holy Mother Church. Praise God! We all have a part to play.

Just remember, "You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." Matthew 5:14-16

Wishing you a glorious Easter,
Donna Ross, Coordinator
Central Service Team (CST)

Pope's Intentions

March

For New Martyrs

Let us pray that those who risk their lives for the Gospel in various parts of the world might imbue the Church with their courage and missionary drive.

April

For The Role Of Women

Let us pray that the dignity and worth of women be recognized in every culture, and for an end to the discrimination they face in various parts of the world.

May

For The Formation Of Men And Women Religious And Seminarians

Let us pray that men and women religious and seminarians, grow in their own vocational journey through human, pastoral, spiritual and community formation, that leads them to be credible witnesses of the Gospel.

Liturgy of the Hours A book of prayer and contemplation

From a commentary on the psalms By Saint Augustine, bishop (Ps. 60, 2-3: CCL 39, 766)

IN CHRIST WE SUFFERED TEMPTATION, AND IN HIM WE OVERCAME THE DEVIL.

Here, O God, my petition, listen to my prayer. Who is speaking? An individual, it seems. See if it is an individual: I cried to you from the ends of the earth while my heart was in anguish. Now it is no longer one person; rather, it is one in the sense that Christ is one, and we are all his members. What single individual can cry from the ends of the earth? The one who cries from the ends of the earth, is none other than the Son's inheritance. It was said to him, Ask of me, and I shall give you the nations as your inheritance, and the ends of the earth as your possession. This possession of Christ, this inheritance of Christ, this body of Christ, this one Church of Christ, this unity that we are, cries from the ends of the earth. What does it cry? What I said before: Hear, O God, my petition, listen to my prayer; I cried out to you from the ends of the earth. That is, I made this cry to you from the ends of the earth; that is on all sides.

Why did I make this cry? While my heart was in anguish. The speaker shows that he is present among all the nations of the earth in a condition, not of exalted glory but of severe trial.

Our pilgrimage on earth cannot be exempt from trial. We progress by means of trial. No one knows himself except through trial, or receives a crown except after victory, or strives except against an enemy or temptations.

The one who cries from the ends of the earth is in anguish, but is not left on his own. Christ chose to foreshadow us, who are his body, by means of his body, in which he has died, risen and ascended into heaven, so that the members of his body may hope to follow where their head has gone before.

He made us one with him when he chose to be tempted by Satan. We have heard in the gospel how the Lord Jesus Christ was tempted by the devil in the wilderness. Certainly Christ was tempted by the devil. In Christ you were tempted, for Christ received his flesh from your nature, but by his own power gained salvation for you; he suffered death in your nature, but by his own power gained life for you, he suffered insults in your nature, but by his own power gained glory for you; therefore, he suffered temptation in your nature, but by his own power gained victory for you.

If in Christ we have been tempted, in him we overcome the devil. Do you think only of Christ's temptations and fail to think of his victory? See yourself as tempted in him, and see yourself as victorious in him. He could have kept the devil from himself; but if he were not tempted he could not teach you how to triumph over temptation.

RESPONSORY Jeremiah 1:19; 39:18

They will fight against you, but shall not defeat you
--for I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.

You shall not fail by the sword; I will keep you safe.
--For I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord.

Baton Rouge Chapter Meal with Bishop David Toups

By Gwen Gillis, Coordinator Baton Rouge Chapter

On Saturday, December 2, 2023, we had a blessed and joy-filled Magnificat experience. Our guest speaker was Bishop Toups! We were also blessed to have two more Bishops: Bishop Michael Duca of the Diocese of Baton Rouge and Bishop Robert Muench, our Bishop Emeritus of Baton Rouge. Of course, our ever-faithful Fr. Al Davidson, our Spiritual Advisor and Fr. Cleo Milano, Pastor of Our Lady of Mercy where our breakfast was held, were both present. Fr. Cleo was also the first Spiritual Advisor of our Baton Rouge, LA Chapter, so we were so glad to welcome him back!

Bishop Toups talk was on family and how we need to get back to kitchen table family time. His talk was spot on with all the brokenness in our society. It was truly a grace-filled Meal and morning. Our pictures are worth a thousand words!

Metairie Chapter hosts Magnificat Day of Reflection and Prayer

Submitted by Sylvia M. Thomas, Historian and Elsa S. Hodges, Secretary

Taking time from busy pre-Mardi Gras schedules, a group of more than thirty women joined Magnificat's Mother Chapter for a day of prayer and reflection on February 2, 2024, at Our Lady of Divine Providence Church.

We were blessed to have Fr. Kesina "Dennis" Obieniu as our presenter. Fr. Dennis, who is originally from Nigeria, is currently at Immaculate Conception Church in Marrero, LA. Father favors an Ignatian Spirituality, which he calls an imaginative form of prayer with Scripture.

The title of Father's presentation was "Encountering God's Love." He spoke about our Church and living out our faith daily in the world today and of praying for our children and grandchildren.

Father Dennis also spoke of those who inspired him on his faith journey especially his Catholic grandmother that raised him as most of the attendees were grandmothers. His words and his love for his grandmother touched our hearts.

The day included Mass, prayers, beautiful music & singing, lunch, and fellowship. We enjoyed God's love and blessings.

Fairfield, CT Chapter November Meal

By Sydney S. McQuade, Secretary

"On November 12, 2023, the Triumphant Heart of Mary Chapter was blessed to celebrate their Fall Meal attended by familiar faces and new friends. Eileen Benthall, accompanied by her daughter Johanna, inspired all in attendance with her moving testimony shining a light on the way the Holy Spirit had been present in her life and the life of her family. Father Larry Carew said a beautiful blessing and led the Meal in prayer, while Peter Mousot led all in attendance in praiseful song. The Chapter's Service Team welcomed all who joined together and all who volunteered to make this a glorious Meal which lifted the hearts of all those who attended in spirit."

Broward County Celebrated 10th Anniversary

By Mary Valladares, Historian

On February 3, 2024, Magnificat Broward Chapter celebrated its 10th anniversary at All Saints Catholic Church located in Oakland Park, Florida where it was founded. Joining in the celebration were 93 faith-filled Catholic women from over 23 parishes. The Chapter's guest speaker and foundress, Joyce Schiel, shared her personal faith journey and provided us with a unique opportunity to learn how her openness to the Holy Spirit inspired and guided not just the Chapter's founding but continues to energize the Chapter and all our members. Our Spiritual Advisor, Fr. Paul, led by the Holy Spirit, also gave a relevant and inspired, thought provoking teaching.

In addition to the moving and inspirational testimony given by Joyce, we enjoyed a lively Spirit-filled praise and worship music and an especially delicious breakfast catered by Juliana Findley, our Chapter's Treasurer. All the attendees left the Meal inspired by the witness and comradery, as they left with a special 10th anniversary memorabilia gift.

Let It Go

By Catherine Cato, Assistant Coordinator

Our December Meal was blessed with the testimony from our Chancellor with the Diocese of Phoenix, Arizona. What does the Chancellor do? In this case, it's Dr. Maria Chavira who is responsible for the orderly arrangement and accessibility of the records and files that keep the diocese running and its recorded history. She is directly under the bishop. She has served the Diocese as the Chancellor since 2013 and was appointed Vice Moderator of the Curia in 2022. She has worked in many aspects of her education which includes her Ph.D. in Educational Psychology from The University of Arizona, and has taught at Mesa Community College in Mesa, Arizona.

Her testimony consisted mainly of her family, through slides and what she learned through faith and family life. Her "motto" that she passed on to us was "let it go". The main lesson was God has His way of letting us know His plan. Sometimes our plan is not God's plan, and we must put our faith and trust that our lives are to be in God's will.

Every one of us was mesmerized by her delivery, poise, and sincerity.

St. Patrick's Breastplate

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the
invocation of the Trinity,
Through belief in the Threeness,
Through confession of the Oneness
of the Creator of creation.

I arise today
Through the strength of Christ's birth
with His baptism,
Through the strength of His crucifixion
with His burial,
Through the strength of His resurrection
with His ascension,
Through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

I arise today
Through the strength of the love of cherubim,
In the obedience of angels,
In the service of archangels,
In the hope of resurrection to meet with reward,
In the prayers of patriarchs,
In the predictions of prophets,
In the preaching of apostles,
In the faith of confessors,
In the innocence of holy virgins,
In the deeds of righteous men.

I arise today, through
The strength of heaven,
The light of the sun,
The radiance of the moon,
The splendor of fire,
The speed of lightning,
The swiftness of wind,
The depth of the sea,
The stability of the earth,
The firmness of rock.

I arise today, through
God's strength to pilot me,

From snares of devils,
From temptation of vices,
From everyone who shall wish me ill, afar and near.

I summon today
All these powers between me and those evils,
Against every cruel and merciless power that may oppose my body and soul,
Against incantations of false prophets,
Against black laws of pagandom,

Against false laws of heretics,
Against craft of idolatry,
Against spells of witches and smiths
and wizards,
Against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul;
Christ to shield me today
Against poison, against burning,
Against drowning, against wounding,
So that there may come to me an abundance of reward.

Christ with me,
Christ before me,
Christ behind me,
Christ in me,
Christ beneath me,
Christ above me,
Christ on my right,
Christ on my left,
Christ when I lie down,
Christ when I sit down,
Christ when I arise,
Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,
Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,
Christ in every eye that sees me,
Christ in every ear that hears me.

I arise today

God's might to uphold me,
God's wisdom to guide me,
God's eye to look before me,
God's ear to hear me,
God's word to speak for me,
God's hand to guard me,
God's shield to protect me,
God's host to save me

Through a mighty strength, the
invocation of the Trinity,
Through belief in the Threeness,
Through confession of the Oneness
of the Creator of creation.

Do Whatever He Tells You To Do

By Joyce Mundy, Coordinator

Magnificat Pittsburgh hosted a Meal on February 10th, the day before the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. Fr. Steve Neff was the speaker. He shared an exceptionally beautiful and appropriate message for the day.

Fr. Neff shared his story that just like Mary at the Wedding of Cana, the amazing women of prayer in his family taught him to "Do whatever he tells you to do." Their prayer was centered around the Rosary. The Rosary helped Fr. Steve to discern the priesthood and has been a "runway" that leads to an encounter with Jesus and Mary.

Reverend Steven V. Neff is a Catholic priest for the Diocese of Pittsburgh. He was ordained on May 21, 2005 and has served as parochial vicar and pastor. He is currently the spiritual director to the seminarians at St. Paul Seminary. He gives conferences on spiritual formation and assists Fr. Tom Sparacino with formation of men at all levels. Before his assignment to St. Paul Seminary, Fr. Steve served as pastor of Saint Catherine of Sweden Parish in Allison Park and worked closely with Fr. Tom as a "neighbor pastor."

Rochester, NY December Meal

By Jeanne Walker, Historian

Men and women enjoyed our last Meal at the lovely Brook-Lea Country Club. It was a powerful, spirit-filled and memorable experience for everyone. A guest speaker we had in 2001, Fr. Paul Bonacci returned to tell the rest of his story. Just a few of his inspiring words he left with us; "We are all on a journey as long as we keep moving." "God will guide us, just trust in Him." "Let the power of God's love sink in."

Our Spiritual Advisor, Fr. Ed reflected on his new experiences during his short time at the Magnificat Conference this past October. His reflection led right into Advent being a time of waiting. He spoke on Surrender- Laying down our judgement, our sinfulness and desires out of trust and faith in God. Believing and being open to receive God's blessings.

A few weeks ago, Betty Bunce, the former Historian for the Rochester Chapter was called home to Jesus. We were blessed to honor Betty for her love and faithfulness. Her son, John Bunce, who is our music minister, gifted us by singing a special song he wrote called "The Journey". It was a special way to honor his mom and our sister in Christ.

Another sister in Christ, Patt Jones, our most recent "Woman of Faith" was also called home to Jesus in October. We were able to honor her with a beautiful candle wreath to raffle, created by Cathy Glucksman. May Betty and Patt rest in God's eternal peace.

Denver Chapter Meal

By Marion Budz, Chapter Historian

On a snowy February 10th, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Chapter welcomed 118 guests to a Meal to hear our speaker, Nikki Kingsley, give her testimony titled 'From Mohammed to Jesus.' The event was held at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Centennial, CO.

Nikki opened her talk with a reading from John 1:1-23 and then shared her compelling story of faith, hope, and her journey to find the truth ... Jesus! Her testimony captured the attention and hearts of our guests as she related how, from an arranged marriage, at the age of 30, was able to flee from Pakistan to America with her two young children. Nikki had an extraordinary series of mystical experiences which prompted her to question her Muslim faith, and her conversion into the Catholic faith. She emphasized that there is no place but America to fight with joy for freedom, as free people. We must be warriors. Nikki suggested that during Lent we ask ourselves, "Who do I think Jesus is? Do I really believe? Do I have a relationship with Him?"

Miami, FL Chapter Meal

By Maria Luque-Rautio, Chapter Coordinator, Region 5 Leadership

On December 2nd, 2023, we were excited to share our last Meal of the year with so many women. It shows us the wonderful interest and anticipation to attend our Miami Meals. We continue to count on new faces, new hearts, and new lives that the Lord desires to bring closer to Him, especially with reference to this younger generation. During Pope Francis' visit to Panama for World Youth Day, his message was that the young people are the "today" of the Church and the world.

We started our Meal led by "Adore Praise and Worship", our young and spirit-filled group of musicians who have been with us almost 2 years now. We followed up with a decade of the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary and spontaneous prayers.

Our Spiritual Advisor, Fr. Hector Troche, shared with us a reflection on "The Miracle of the Eucharist." He brought many points across on the power of the Eucharist, which is the true body, blood, soul, and divinity of Christ among us and who is always willing to heal us, embrace us with His love and to transform our lives with miracles of His love and grace.

Our Meal was delicious Italian cuisine. Everyone enjoyed a time of sisterhood and fellowship; and we especially loved meeting so many new ladies. Our wonderful speaker, Valli Leone, shared her inspiring testimony. She expressed such a glad spirit that our hearts felt that true and supernatural joy, the joy of the Holy Spirit.

We concluded with communal and individual prayers. The Lord was magnified and glorified through it all, and the Holy Spirit took over.

North County San Diego February Meal

By Lisa Ledyard, Historian

At our North County San Diego Meal, Deacon Kevin Helfers of St. Vincent de Paul Parish in San Diego, CA gave a moving testimony of God's faithfulness, as he explained that the diaconate was never in his plan. However, saying yes to whatever the Lord wanted of him led him there. At a very young age, Deacon Kevin accepted Jesus into his heart. After marrying his wife Yvette and welcoming two daughters, the couple started to search for a church home. A Catholic friend welcomed him into RCIA and the Catholic Church, following a dream that gave him peace and answered many concerns he had about the Church. Experiencing a Cursillo weekend furthered his faith and eventually a call to ministry. Meanwhile, he and Yvette became parents of 11 children, 5 in heaven. "He has adopted each and every one of us," said Deacon Kevin. "Be known and loved by God. Be seen." Formation may be painfully necessary and uncomfortable, he reminded us. But through the power of heaven, we must realize we are heirs to His healing power!

Attendance at North County San Diego's Magnificat was near maximum capacity. Donna Lee provided music for praise and worship and almsgiving for the "Love" themed gathering.

San Gabriel Valley Magnificat Meal

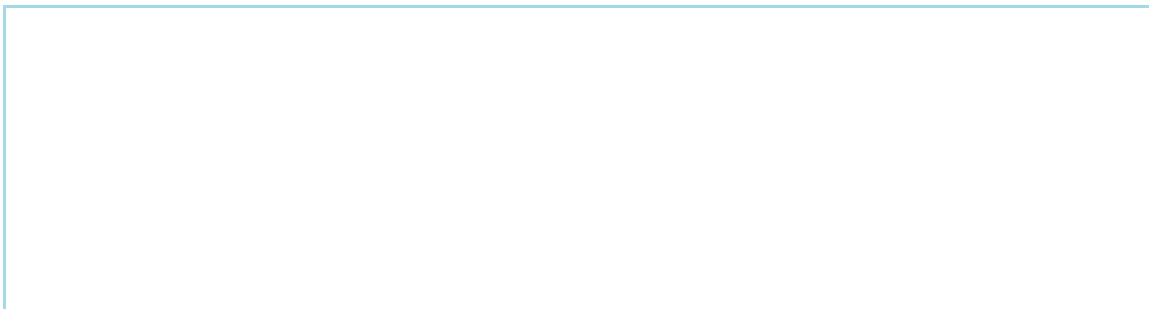

By Peggy Gruytch, Secretary

Our Meal was held on February 24, 2024, at Mountain Meadows Gold Course in Pomona, CA. Our guest speaker was Dr. Elizabeth Kim, Coordinator of the Orange County Chapter. Her testimony touched many of the attendees in such a way that I was approached by a few of the women who wanted to express how she inspired them. Other women shared an interest in bringing their adult children to our next event.

Our praise and worship music provided by Donna Lee was powerful and emotional. Her love of the Lord is reflected through her music. Our Meal was delicious and provided an opportunity for the women to share their own personal journey with each other. We were all blessed and filled with the Holy Spirit and grateful for the time together.

MAGNIFICAT SPIRITUALITY

The new Magnificat Spirituality book brings the principles of Magnificat into one concise volume. Now, we can be informed and instructed in what it truly means to say "yes" to God like Mary and join her in proclaiming His greatness in word and deed through Magnificat membership.

"But the hour is coming, in fact has come, when the vocation of woman is being achieved in its fullness, the hour in which woman acquires in the world an influence, an effect, and a power never hitherto achieved. That is why, at this moment when the human race is undergoing so deep a transformation, women impregnated with the spirit of the Gospel can do much to aid mankind in not falling..."
– Second Vatican Council message to women

"Magnificat Spirituality is a response to this proclamation, echoing in our times, calling us back to personal holiness, community, and service in obedience to the Holy Spirit. The world needs a compelling manifestation of God's love and power to heal broken lives and institutions. With Mary, as our model and greatest intercessor, we believe Magnificat, with Chapters worldwide, has been called and equipped "for such a time as this."
