Lisa Jauregui is a “cradle Catholic” who has always held a candle for Jesus in her heart. As a teen, she participated in youth retreats, which awakened her to the Holy Spirit’s powerful love. Throughout her happy marriage and family life, she has also endured difficult struggles and has received incredible blessings. She shares her story with the hope of inspiring others to live for God. Her devotion to prayer, scripture, and her love for the Catholic faith, Mary, and the Saints, has allowed the Holy Spirit’s gifts and virtues to grow within, leading her into ministry. She has served as a catechist, mothers group coordinator, liturgical ministry lector, R.C.I.A. catechist, and retreat evangelist. Lisa’s belief is to seek Him first and allow God to turn her ordinary life into extraordinary living! She says, “I am amazed by His love and provisions! And He can bless your life too!”
