Doors Open at 8:15 am

Andi Oney is an international Catholic evangelist, author, wife, and mother from the Archdiocese of New Orleans, known for her anointed teaching and exhortation. Andi began her professional career in elementary education. In 2013, during the International Prophetic Consultation, she had a profound encounter while praying in the Upper Room, which led to her active involvement in teaching at conferences, retreats, and parish missions around the world. This transformative experience resulting in her publication of Mary's Life in the Holy Spirit (The Word Among Us Press) and Extravagant Praise: Our History, Heritage, and Hope. Andi is also the co-founder of Hope and Purpose Ministries, a nonprofit organization dedicated to the new evangelization. At its heart, the ministry seeks to spread the grace of baptism in the Spirit and remain close to the poor. The fruits of this ministry include the St. John Paul II Hope and Purpose Primary School in Uganda, East Africa, feeding the homeless in New Orleans, and engaging in person-to-person ministry through prayer, conferences, retreats, missions, and other speaking engagements.
