

GUEST SPEAKER:
Fr. John Maria
Devaney, O.P.

Fr. John Maria Devaney, OP is a Dominican Friar of the Province of St. Joseph. After ordination in 2015, Fr. John served as a hospital chaplain, including on the front lines of the Covid-19 crisis, on the Upper Eastside of Manhattan as part of the Dominican Health Care Ministry until the Summer of 2022 later moving to St. Pius V on October 28th, the Feast of St. Jude 2023.

Fr. John was stationed in Hanover, NH at St. Dennis Parish and Aquinas House Catholic Ministry at Dartmouth College. Also, for almost a decade, Fr. John has also hosted a weekly SiriusXM satellite radio show entitled "Word to Life" on The Catholic Channel.

On a special note, since the Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy, Fr. John Maria was appointed by Pope Francis to serve the Church as a Missionary of Mercy with the commission to be a "living sign" of the Father's welcome to all those in search of his forgiveness..." (Misericordiae Vultus #18). Fr. John originally hails from Clinton, NJ and is the youngest of three children. He attended Emerson College in Boston and worked in radio broadcasting and concert/music festival producing for a decade and half before entering the Dominican Order.

I am now delighted to serve God and his people as pastor of St. Pius V Parish as a priest of Jesus Christ and a son of St. Dominic. I am also excited to follow in the footsteps of a century plus of my fellow friars who have shepherded before me. Let us look to our patron, Pope St. Pius V, and stay close to Our Lady and her Rosary in prayer and complete abandonment to Divine Providence in Providence!!" We are privileged to have this especially gifted teacher, speaker, and broadcaster share his incredible journey.
